Conference Proceedings

On Wednesday June 23, 2021. Islamabad Institute of Conflict Resolution (IICR) organized a one day online international conference titled “Crimea is Ukraine”. The conference was held in collaboration with Ministry of Foreign Affairs Ukraine and Presidential office Mission of the President of Ukraine in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea.

The panelists included Ms. Emine Dzhaparova, Ukraine's First Deputy Foreign Minister, Ms. Lutfiye Zudiyeva, a human rights activist from Crimea and Mr. Anton Korynevych, permanent representative of the Ukrainian president in Autonomous Republic of Crimea. Mr. Markian Chuchuk, Ukraine's ambassador to Pakistan, gave his concluding remarks at the end of the conference. The session was moderated by Mr. Jamal Akbar, Research associate at Islamabad Institute of Conflict Resolution (IICR).

Ms. Emine Dzhaparova:

While speaking to the panel Ms. Emine Dzhaparova expressed her gratitude for solidarity with Crimea. She highlighted the three pillars of the Crimea Platform, strategy, consolidation, and synergy. Sharing her views on Russian occupation of Crimea she said that the occupation has resulted in the increased Russian military in the peninsula, as the statistics provided were 540 thousand army personals, 70 tanks, 900 armed vehicles and 200 artillery system, which has severely undermined the freedom of navigation in black sea.

Ms. Emine also highlighted those major consequences of Russian occupation are militarization and mass violation of human rights and international humanitarian law which includes, forced occupation, militarization of education/ propaganda of war among the minors, forcible demographic changes, political persecution, political and cultural suppression, suppression of religious freedom and curtailment of freedom of expression and suppression of media. Sharing the statistics, she mentioned that forced demographic changes occurs as 48000 people left Ukraine while 50000 Russian citizens moved in. She also said that Russians are moving as many citizens as they can. Going through the curtailment of freedom of religion, expression and media, this is the reality of Crimea.

Commenting on the national strategy towards developing situation she said that Ukraine has national strategy on the de-occupation and reintegration of Crimea, which envisages spheres of legal information, economic, humanitarian, and foreign policy, and social protection of enhancing the legislation. Ms. Dzaparoza also discussed Crimea Platform which is a response to the Russian occupation and said that it is a coordination and consultation format to implement international aspects of de-occupation strategy. Furthermore, it will also document the crimes committed by the Russian federation on Crimea.

Talking about the strategic vision for the Ukraine she mentioned that the consolidation for non-recognition, sanctions, security concerns, protection of human rights and overcoming the negative economy remains the top priority. The chain of Crimea platform is followed by the head of the states, Ministers of foreign affairs, political committee, and international expert network. The head of the state inaugurated the Crimea Platform Summit in Kyiv, Ukraine in which more than 100 leaders were invited. The concluding remarks shared by the hope that Pakistan on every level will support the cause of Ukraine.

Mr. Anton Korynevych:

The next speaker on the panel was Mr. Anton Korynevych. His presentation was about the Priorities, plans and result of Crimea. Moreover, he discussed the internal policy for the management of the occupation by Russia. He endorsed that Crimea Platform will be the biggest event in Kiev. Mr. Anton said that de-occupation strategy and reintegration of Crimea is drafted and approved by the President of Ukraine and there is a national consensus on it. The big strategic approach talks about all the problematic issues documented officially for the first time which are faced by the Russian. The document will be the legally binding one. In his strategy he mentioned to keep the ties well with the Ukrainian citizens who resides in the occupied Crimea through the administrative services and liberty to study in the Ukrainian universities. In this strategy, he also points out the transitional justice which is the implementation of different elements such as principle of right to know the truth.

He further said that president office is keeping the issue of political prisoners high on agenda and has Drafted law on political prisoners, prisoners of law and civilian hostages. For this they have developed an Interdepartmental Commission which works under the government of Ukraine which delivers the state support including the financials.

Highlighting the importance of Crimea Platform Mr. Korynevych expressed that Crimea platform gives exact understanding of Ukrainian strategy against the occupation. The prime focus is to secure the rights of the indigenous Crimean Tatar population and keep ties with the international partners to highlight the issue, said Mr. Anton.

Ms. Lutfiye Zudiyeva:

The last Speaker on the panel was Ms. Lutfiye Zudiyeva. She discussed the human right violation among the minorities in occupied Crimea and highlighted those reasonable demographic changes resulting due to the occupation. While highlighting oppression of the Tatars by the occupying forces Ms. Lutfiye said that many of the Crimean Tatars openly opposed Russia's invasion which began in 2014 and people became a minority in their own homeland after the annexation by the Russian. She mentioned that they do not feel safe from the Russian authorities even today. Moreover, she added that Russia has banned the Tatar media after 2014 and is using terrorism for political purposes through which children are also effected by the ills of occupation. The human rights violation such as administrative fines, arrests of political leaders, activists, human rights defenders, and journalists who disagree with the events of 2014. She also mentioned that the Russia is substituting the population over the past seven years. About 200000 Russian citizens have moved from Russia to Crimea. It has also banned the organizations which critics the Russian actions in the Crimea. The law departments have become an instrument under the political pressure of the Russian authorities. Since 2014, 94 Crimean and Tatars have been arrested in the freedom of movement under various articles of the criminal court of Russia. UN also demands Russia to release all the political figures. She mentioned that more than 80 men were detained under the suspicion of working for a terrorist group, none have been proven. It was an act by the Russians to show the international organizations the truth from their side. Even the prisoners who are Muslims have to be imprisoned for minimum 19 years. It is evident that terrorism is used for political purposes. There are more than 200 children whos e fathers have been executed or sent to prison. Russian federation does not persecute terrorists and militant groups in the peninsula however, innocent civilians are regularly arrested and persecuted, in all this fiasco Muslims minorities are also victimized, said Ms. Zudiyeva.

Concluding remarks by Ambassador Markian Chuchuk,

Ukraine's ambassador to Pakistan said it was a solitude and privilege providing this ability to raise the Crimean issue and to introduce Crimean platform to Pakistan experts, scholars, students, politicians, and media. He emphasized that it was not the unilateral propaganda from the Ukrainian side, it was fair and comprehensive overview of the situation based strictly on International Law. On 26th June, we celebrate a day of Crimea and Tatar flag, it was a pronounced chance to demonstrate solidarity and to present a strategy of the occupation of Crimea on international arena. He concluded by expressing his gratitude to the speakers. He specifically appreciated for conducting this webinar by Islamabad Institute of Conflict Resolution.

The conference was then followed by Question-and-answer session.

Russian government has conducted a fake survey in Crimea: Emin Zaporova

PEAK POINT

ISLAMABAD: Ukraine's First Deputy Foreign Minister Emin Zaporova has said that the Russian government has conducted a fake survey in Crimea, which has exposed its cunning. Crimea is part of Ukraine, which is under Russian aggression. The people of Crimea want to annex Ukraine. An online conference organized by the Islamabad Institute of Conflict Resolution was held yesterday, in which Emin Zaporova said that Russia has forcibly occupied Crimea, while the Russian army is occupying the entire state. He conducted a fake survey through military aggression in which he showed that 82% of the people of Crimea want to join Russia and the media has shown a side of the picture contrary to the facts based on forgery.

The Russian army occupies the entire state, which we have forcibly occupied. Meanwhile, Russia conducts fake surveys inside Crimea through military aggression. He said that if the people were given freedom and freedom, then no one would join the usurping country like Russia and the people of Crimea would be with Ukraine. Ready and we have full confidence in our defense system.
